Guidance Notes

the gallery on the corner provides these notes to give art groups and individual artists, who are submitting ideas for a temporary exhibition, a clear understanding of our selection process. We want the process to be fair, accessible and inclusive.

Who can apply?

Open to all art groups who work with artists who have a physical and/or mental health condition or are from a disadvantaged background, as well as individual artists who fit the same criteria.

What are we looking for?

- High quality, original, contemporary art that promotes the gallery's ethos of being an inclusive gallery
- Drawings, paintings, sculpture, jewellery, photography, textiles and any other relevant artwork
- Sellable art
- Agreement to publicise artists work in gallery marketing material

What we need:

- A completed Exhibition Proposal Form
- A selection of electronic images of each artist's current work should be submitted, either by email or CD-ROM. If your exhibition proposal is chosen by the gallery we will use these images to publicise your exhibition on our website.
- Artist's statement for each artist involved in the exhibition. If your exhibition proposal is chosen by the gallery we will use this on our website.

Exhibition artwork:

- Please ensure that your artwork is ready for hanging e.g. framed/ mounted etc
- Artwork will be exhibited on a sale or return basis, with the artist receiving 60% of the selling price – the customer will not receive their purchased artwork until the end of the temporary exhibition.
- Your artwork will be insured up to a value of £500 per piece whilst in the gallery
- All unsold artwork will be returned at the end of the exhibition
